Authorized by USCIS

Citizenship Examinations

We offer

An initial evaluation with a USCIS authorized psychologist that can complete and fill out form N 648.

Who can apply?

Any applicant for naturalization who is seeking an exception to the English and/or civics requirements for naturalization because of a physical, developmental, or mental impairment.

An initial evaluation will cost $100.00 non refundable that will be credited towards a routine evaluation. This charge is only an interview process which includes a brief interview with the psychologist to determine whether your condition warrants further evaluation and/or investigations*. Should your condition warrant further testing and investigations the price will be as followed and the 100.00 works toward the total.
